On this tour we enjoy the jungle setting of Chacchoben and its majestic ruins. This site existed during the late Book of Mormon times. Learn how the structures and rituals of the Maya relate to the Book of Mormon and LDS beliefs. After visiting the ruins, we travel to a little Maya village where we have the opportunity to see how the Maya lived. The Maya experience at the village has become a favorite for many guests. $125 per person if paying by check.

Day 5: Cozumel, Mexico

Our tour to Tulum begins with a ferry ride from Cozumel over to Playa del Carmen, an upscale tourist resort city. Our Latter-day Saint guides will meet us there where we will board air-conditioned buses for a 1-hour bus ride to the site. Our guides will point out the many unique and important points of interest to our group as we see and learn about this spectacular Mayan civilization. After our tour of the ruins, there MAY be some free time to wander through the shops and maybe get a refreshing ice cream cone. We will have a boxed lunch and drink waiting for us as we drive back to Playa del Carmen. If time permits, we enjoy more shopping time or even a quick dip in the Caribbean Sea before our ferry ride back to Cozumel. If you have never visited the Tulum ruins you do not want to miss this opportunity! $130 per person if paying by check.

All Rates are per person based on double occupancy. We have limited numbers of cabins available at the advertised rates. Once we sell our reduced rate cabins, the price will double on this cruise. Because it's a brand new ship with a very high price during Christmas break, 3rd passenger rates are very expensive. We recommend you find an even number of traveling companions for this particular cruise to take advantage of our amazing prices.

Single occupancy prices on this cruise are very expensive. We have very limited availability for inside and window cabins. Once the cabins are sold from our group contract, the pricing will almost double. This cruise has gotten very expensive because demand for the new ship over Christmas is high.
